EIGHTH AND BROAD STREETS.

MEN AND BOYS.

Every Style, Every New Creation That the Best Tallors in All America Have Created. Men's Suits, equal to the tailor-to-order suits, for $18.00

BOYS' SUITS THAT DEFY COMPETITION.

$1.48 for Good Suits, well made and perfect fitting.

to $3.50 buys Suits that are usually priced $2.75 to

Other beautifully Tailored Children's Suits to Boys' Corduray Pants, Ages 4 to 14 210 Base-ball and Bat given away with every Child's Suit.

OLD POINT COMFORT

Spring has come early to Old Point this store.

Last Saturday evening before the hop at the Chamberlin, Mrs. J. A. Tyler, of New York, gave a dinner for her daughter, Miss Dalsy Tyler. The guests included Major and Mrs. William C. Rafferty, Lieutenant and Mrs. R. H. Tilton, Captain Frank K. Fergusson, Captain Percy P. Bishop, Lieutenant Thompson and Lieutenant Wheeler, of Fort Monroe; Miss Catharine Reed, of Portland, Me., and Miss Tucket of Albany.

P. Bishop, Lieutenant Thompson and Lieutenant Wheeler, of Fort Monroe; Miss Catharine Reed, of Portland, Me, and Miss Tucker, of Albany.

On Saturday evening also, Miss Sullivan, of Washington, gave a dinner for Mrs. George F. Adams, at which other guests were Colonel and Mrs. Ramsay, D. Potts, Major and Mrs. Oxden Rafferty. Capthin and Mrs. William Chamberlin, Capthin and Mrs. William Chamberlin, Capthin and Mrs. C. C. Carter, Capthin Francis N. Cooke and Lieutenant Sheen, of Fort Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lestrade, of New York; Mrs. Francis P. Brown, Mrs. L. D. Green, of Chicago; General Thomas Sullivan, General Caleb H. Carlton, Mr. George F. Adams and Mr. Houston Eldredge.

Mrs. Westey M. Oler, of Larchmont, N. Y., gave a bridge party on Tuesday afternoon, when her guests were Miss Sullivan, of Washinston; Miss Carlton, of Rye, N. Y.; Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Richard Cravens, Mrs. Harry Barnes, Mrs. George O. Hubbard, Mrs. Richard Coke Mrs. William Chamberlin, of Fort Monroe; Mrs. Francis S. Brown, Mrs. John Kimberly and Mrs. George F. Adams, of Old Point; Mrs. Albert Stahl, Mrs. W. Strother Smith, Mrs. Harry Parker and Mrs. Harry Kimberly, of Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lestrade, of New York, gave a supper at the Fort Monroe Club after the hop on Saturdag evening and on Sunday evening Major and Mrs. Williams C. Rafferty gave a dinner for Miss Newman, of New York. Vigninans who were at the Chamberlin for the week-end were Mrs. Martin, of Scottsville, the wife of Senator Thomas S. Martin; Miss Grace Day, of Smithfield; Mr. and Mrs. Will Parish and Mr. and Mrs. Wilsons who were at the Chamberlin for the week-end were Mrs. Martin, of Scottsville, the wife of Senator Thomas S. Martin; Miss Grace Day, of Smithfield; Mr. and Mrs. Will Parish and Mr. and Mrs. Homson, Miss Clara Macdonald, Miss Thomson, Miss Clara Macdonald, Miss Thomson, Miss Clara Macdonald, Montreal.

SCOTTSVILLE, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SCOTTSVILLE, VA. April 1.—Mr.
Jackson Beal, of Beal Brothers, Scottsville, had occasion to go in his store on Sunday and heard a faint sound like the mew of a cat. die could not locate the sound at first, as everything was shut up tight and could see but dimity.
Finally he put his ear to the door of the big safe at the back of the store, and found that the noise came from Mattings.

REFRIGERATORS

AT LOWEST PRICES.

out jumped one of the per cars of the store. She had been in the safe all year, and the long, pleasant days are of Saturday night and part of Sunday, being taken advantage of for all sorts of outdoor amusements. In the evenings dances, dinners and card parties have the proper ways any accordance of the control of the co and her mother, "Trilby," are very devoted to Mr. Wm. Beal, the other member of the firm. Every day when he goes down the street to Hotel Scottsville to dinner they follow close at his heels and sif gust outside antil he comes out with their dinner. Them they go back to the store and eat it in their own particularly corner. On Saturday night they never fall to move over to the "Palace," the rooms across the way, occupied by Messrs. Wm. Beal and S. R. Gault, and there they remain until Monday morning.

Senator F. C. Moon, while driving to Scottsville Saturday morning with Captain Cleland, of "Hatton Grange," had a painful accident. Captain Cleland's horses took fright and Senator Moon jumped from the vehicle, dislocating his ankle, and breaking one of the bones. He will probably not be out for several weeks.

The thirteen-year-old son of Mrs. P.

ville, attended by Dr. W. C. Williams, He will probably not be out for several weeks.

The thirteen-year-old son of Mrs. P. C. Maxey, of Lynchburg, was buried here on Friday afternoon at the Presbyterian cemetery. Mrs. Maxey has lost her husband and two sons within the last twelve months.

The infant child of Mr. Londeree, of Wingina, was also buried here at the same time on Friday.

A large squad of hands left to-day for Kentucky. These are employed on a large railroad contract for Johnson. Pitts and Briggs.

Messrs. Robertson & Bolton, of Hatton, are selling out their dry goods stock and will leave Hatton shortly.

The tennis court has been put in thorough order, and the players are making the most of the pleasant weather. Fish are plentiful. Eighteen attached themselves to one boy's line one day recently.

Mr. P. W. Nelson, County Superinten-themselves to one boy's line one day recently

Mr. P. W. Nelson, County Superintendent of Schools, is a candidate for reappointment.
Mrs. W. T. Shepherd and daughter, Luise, returned to Richmond Wednesday, after a visit to Mrs. Shepherd's mother, Mrs. Shepherd sang two heatiful solos in the Methodist Church here on Sunday.
Mr. Norman Daniel, of Richmond College, has returned to Richmond after a visit to his parents here.
Mr. Tyler Beal left for Hanover county this morning to engage in the mercantile business.

this morning to engage in the mercantile business.

Mrs. M. A. Martin is improving.

Miss Mary Lane, of Esmont, visited Miss Mary Lane, of Esmont, visited Miss Mae Beal, of Scottsville, this week.

Mr. R. I. Wade has returned to his home in Richmond after a visit to his brother, Dr. J. P. Blair.

Mrs. Nathan Payne, of Esmont, was in Scottsville this week.

Mrs. M. M. Blair, who was called to Richmond on account of the illness of her son, Dr. W. M. Wade, returned on Thursday.

Messrs. C. B. Harris and R. L. Goodman visited Charlottesville this week.

Hon. F. C. Moon, whose ankle was dislocated Priday, is better, and expects to leave for Lynchburg Sunday.

Mrs. T. S. Martin has returned to Richmond after a visit to 'Fairview'.

Mr. D. H. Pitts is in Baltimore.

Parlor, Bed-Room, Dining-Room, Kitchen.

Fine Go-Cart for $8.75

Open the Go-Cart season and intro-ducing our splendid stock with this spe-cial underselling bargain:

Excellent full-roll Go-Cart, with 1995 gear, automobile wheels, latest brake, and best springs. New green carriage finish. A strong, light, easy-running Go-Cart that can't be duplicated any where at this special under $8.75 of the old families of Virginia, there is of the cosmopolitan feature to all the social intercourse here which is not present in the society of an inland city and which does not prevail to so great an extent in any other city except New York, on the Atlantic coast, San Francisco, on the Pacific, and New Orleans on the Guif.

Full Size Folding Go-Cart, perforated seat, spe-$1.75

NORFOLK SOCIETY:

There are families here representing not only great constituances in Virginia, but, because of the geographical position of Norfolk, of North and South Carcellad and Maryland. The business and social relations of the people up and down the coust and along all of the rivers and estimates, which converge here care in the coust and along all of the rivers and estimates, which converge here care in the coust and along all of the rivers and estimates, which converge here care in the coust of the city because of the close real formation with the city because of the close real or always tending to increase the social contre of the Tidewater district as well as the meeting place for visitors all along the hospitalities of the place a vogue in participate. Those who came from a participate. Those who came from a participate. Those who are here exceed the hospitalities of the place to visitors from the West, the North, and the South. Tifere are circles from all of the sections and their members are always anxious to entertain the visitors introduced by the various other circles. Thus there is always something doing at Norfolk and therefore it is that no one can arrive here, with a proper introduction, without enjoying the free and generous welcome which only a cosmopolitan society can give. Miss Marion Simulation of the party left about 10 o'clock, and after several hours spent on the water, they returned to the yard, where luncheon was served at Miss Mahanis residence. Miss Mahanis residence. Miss Mahanis proposition of the party was chaperoned by Miss Marion Simulation, and Miss Mahanis Proposition of Surfolk, Mrs. Prop Mrs. Prop

Mrs. C. Brooks Johnston entertained the members of the Tuesday Bridge Mrs. C. Brooks Johnston entertained the members of the Tuesday Bridge Whist Club at her home in Ghent. There were two tables, and the prizes, which were cups and sauters, were awarded to Mrs. Hewett, of Richmond, and Mrs. Percy Stephenson. Mrs. Johnston's guests were: Mrs. Hewett, Mrs. Hugh N. Page, Mrs. J. Leighton Hubard, Mrs. Allan R. Hanckel, Mrs. Floyd Hughes, Mrs. Percy Stephenson. Mrs. Gordon Jones and Mrs. Forney Reess.

The members of the Embroidery Club met on Tuesday with Misa Buth Wilson, at her home on Granby Street. Those present were: Mrs. Charles H. Wood, Mrs. Richard Mellwaine, Jr., Mrs. Junius Lynch, Mrs. George C. Cabell, Jr., Mrs. Blair Bannister, Mrs. Harry L. Myers, and Miss Alice Old. The Club will be entertained next week by Mrs. Myers in Ghent.

Ghent.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Elizabeth Hoggard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Cornick Hoggard, to Dr. Mathew. Kemp Gwyn, of the United States Marine Hospital service. The wedding will occur Tuesday evening, April 25th, in Christ Episcopal Church. Rev. Carl E. Grammar will perform the ceremony. Miss Lou Haggard will be maid of honor, and the best man will be the brother of the groom. Mr. Sangston Gwyn, of Baltimore. Miss Grace Branham, of Baltimore; Miss Loule Shard, of Staunton; Miss Alice Hoggard, Miss Charlotte Herbert, Miss Filen Bell, Miss Alice Old, Miss Virginia McBlair, and Miss Urith N. Green will be bridesmaids.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sydney Smith enter-

命命命命

and Miss Urith N, Green will be bridesmids.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Sydney Smith entertained several friends at cards on Monday evening at their home on College place. The guests of honor were Mr.
Egbert March and daughter, Miss Virginla March, of New York. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William S.
White, Mrs. Seth Borum, Mrs. Gwynn
T. Shepherd, Miss March, Miss Grace
Borum, Miss Jennie drewrey, Misses Jennie and Delia Borum, Mr. March and Mr. Arthur White.
Miss Louise Watts, of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of Miss Belle Heath, on Bute Street.

Miss Louise Watts, of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of Miss Belle Heath, on Bute Street.

Mrs. W. S. Taylor and son, Dr. Horace Taylor, who have been spending the winter in Washington, are guests of Mrs. B. T. Bockover, on Bank Street, for a few days before opening their home, "Disney-on-the-Roads."

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Stock, who have been visiting friends in Norfolk for several weeks, have returned to their home in Hillsdale, Mich.

Miss Lelia Burt Phillipps, of Tarboro, N. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. John F. Woodward, in Ghent.

Mrs. John R. Todd and Miss Payne are visiting relatives in Warrenton, Va.

Mrs. E. K. Delihant, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. Calvert Taylor, on Yarmouth Street, left Sunday afternoon for her home in Randolph, Md.

Mrs. Harlow D. Higginbothim, of Pittsburg, is the guest of her aunt, Miss Mary Smith, on Duke Sirest, Miss Eleanor Conrad, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry H. Little, in Ghent, for several weeks, but returned to her home in Winchester.

Miss Louise Doyle, of Baltimore, left Monday afternoon for Baltimore, after spending the winter with Mrs. Walter Sharp, on York Street.

Mrs. Shuart, of Rochester, N. Y., who has been the guest of Mrs. Gordon De-Cordy, on Boush Street, is visiting friends in Amithmed.

Mrs. Alabama.

Miss Cherry Nottingham is visiting friends in Smithmed.

Mrs. and Mrs. Martin Browne left Saturdsy afternoon for New York after being the guests of their mother, Mrs.

A Most Brilliant and Comprehensive

Display of Spring Merchandise.

The Largest, the Best, the Most Complete Springtime Display Ever Made in This Store.

Julius Sycle & Sons,

201 and 203 East Broad.

TT INCLUDES the best and most exclusive designs from the world's leading makers.

Remember, we have been noted in years for our unparalleled bar-gain-giving. We save you money. Julius Sycle & Sons,

Corner Second and Broad.

K. & S. Blouse Waists.

Boys' Blouse Madras Walst	淵。				W.		٠.						800
Boys' Blouse Shirts Boys' White Laundered Walst	pecwy	47.4	225.11	4 4	 200	100		6.0	100	30		20.00
Person Deferring			H				ATT.				100		LIVU
Boys' Night Shirts	100		••	M		ŀ		h	1		H		ove

The Best Variety of Mohair Dress Goods.

Probably no other store can show the unusual variety of Mohairs that we have for sale here.

Checks and Shadow Checks for summer suits, 44 inches inches wide ... Mohairs, with small cross of same and Blue and Black Mohairs, with small cross of same and Tissue Sol, a solid material with lace figures and dot, 27 inches wide, pinks, lavender and white, only, yard. 50c Plaid Pongee, 27 inches wide, yard. 50c Solid Color Pongee, 86 inches wide, a bargain. 50c

Black Polka China Silk, 23 inches, wide, yard..... Silk Chiffon, regular price; 50c, now

8	Lautes Waists
1	Crepe and Danish Cloth Waists, in all shades; also white
ŝ	and black
1	Brown, Black and Blue Polka Dot Mercerized Waist, with ğ	Persian band trimming
1	400 Silk Taffeta Waists, in pink, gray, blue and green; price
9	was $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00; your choice
1	White Lawn Walst, tucked and hemstitched, worth $1.89
9	only $1.20

What We Are Selling in New White Goods.

æ
	Persian Lawn, regular 15c quality
	White Figured Madras for boys' waists and ladies' skirts, worth 17c yard, only Corded Pique, yard work, yard
	EOLIENNE, all colors, yard18c

Special Bargains This Week in Table Linens and White Spreads.

Some New Ruchings.

Various Crepe, Lisses, etc., made in many styles; Snowflake Directoire of Inserting, with frills down each side, used for Laces at Special Prices.

Like the ocean billows are the piles of Laces that are being used this spring for dresses and underclothes. Allovers for waist and yoking; single and double fold, yard, 50c to. . $3.00 Valenciennes Laces, the choicest designs, in round and square meshes, Edges and Insertion to match; full line of narrow Black Lace and Beadings.

Sateen and Moreen Petticoats.

$4.50. They are made with such deep platted flounce that they give just the right lines to the new, full gathered skirts.

Special bargain in Colored Silk Petticoats, $10.00 and $15.00

Kayser Gloves.

Gloves are more interesting than they've been since that first year when Paris hinted that white gloves were the only proper thing to wear, even with black dresses. Every glove we sell is with a guarantee. We can give you any shade and any length, in black, tan, white and gray.

Seasonable Silk Suits.

Silk Taffeta Suits, in all colors, $16.00 to825.00 Mohair Suits, $10.00 to $15.00

White Linens.

LINEN SHEETING, LINEN FOR FANCY WORK, LINEN FOR

White Linen, 36 inches wide, yard
Blucher Linen for skirts, 36 inchés wide25c
Linen Sheeting, 90 inches wide, $1.39 grade$1.19
Panama Linen, a very nice material for full suits, yard 62c
Sheer and Fine Organdles, worth 25c
Imported Organdies, were bought to sell for 50c.; importer overstocktd; we bought heavily; our price
Dresden Figured Nets and Solid Colors19c

American Lady Corsets

one, some have two pairs hose supporters, short or habit bip, high and low bust; also girdle length, sizes 18 to 30....$/.00

Ferris's Waist for Misses and Ladies, 50c, 75c and$1.00

New Spring Mattings.

The finest showing of Mattings you've seen, and all conveniently arranged for easiest selection. This season's new 2c for Indigo Prints.

There is enough for a full day's selling, so you will find them on sale all day. Extra precautions have been made to prevent dealers from purchasing.

Sale of Sample Skirts.

extra stout people; all well made in new and becoming

Cotton Crash, Monday, 3c Yard.

WE EXTEND CREDIT to responsible parties weekly and monthly.

Julius Sycle & Sons,

Corner Second and Broad.

See the New Neckwear For Ladies and Gentlemen.

Helen M. Browne, in Ghent.

Mrs. Racot and Miss Florence Bacot are visiting friends in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt, of Richmond, are guests of their sister. Mrs. Floyd Hughes, on Yerk Street.

Mrs. Stephen Van Wyck has returned to her home in New York after visiting Mrs. Thomas Baltimore, in Ghent.

Mrs. Ray, wife of Pay Director, C. M. Ray, U. S. N., is in town visiting Mrs. Bullard.

Miss Grace Kearing has returned from a trip to New York.

Mrs. George Tait, of Tennessee, is visiting relatives in Smithfield, after being the guest of Miss Loule Taylor, on Granby Street.

Mrs. Harry L. Myers, who has been visiting Mrs. I. A. Saunders in Washington, has returned,

Miss Virgle Rogers, who has been visiting relatives in Cinchmat, has returned.

Miss Lucy Tayloe has returned to her

Miss Lucy Tayloe has returned to har home in Washington, N. C., after being the guest of Mrs. Helen M. Browne, in Ghent.

RAPIDAN RIPPLES.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RAPHAN, VA., April 1.—Miss Grant, who has been a guest of the hospitable home of the Misses Holladay, hos returned to her home in Richmond.
Mr. Joseph Wilmer has returned from a business trip to Baltimore.
Miss Bessle Wyatt was a Culpeper visitor on Sunday and Monday last.
Messrs, Jas. A. Swan and Frank Bowman were guests at the home of Mr. S. A. Carpenter Sunday, and attended court at Orange Monday.

Mr. H. T. Holladay is on a trip to Charlottesville. Miss Lizzie Marchant, of Gordonsville, Chariottesyme.

Miss Lizzie Marchant, of Gordonsville, is the guest of her friend, Miss Mollie Moore.

Mr. H. T. Holladay, Jr., was a Warrenton visitor on Wednesday.

Mrs. Murrey, of Boston, Mass., who has been the guest of her friend, Mrs. Mills, has returned to her friend, Mrs. Mills, has returned to her home.

Mrs. A. L. Moore and son, Muster W. W. Moore, of Mine Run, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marchael Mrs. Mrs. Miss. H. Lohr, of Radiant, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace Jacobs, during the past week.

Miss Namile Holladay is visiting in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. W. Briggs, of Locust Dale, is quite ill, we are sorry to note.

Mr. Lewis Holladay is recuperating at the Hot Springs, Va.

Misses Natalle Horris, Grace Hope, and Edith Jacobs were guests of Mrs. R. H.

Jacobs in Orange, on Sunday and Monday,

Messes, H. T. Holladay, Jr., and Wm. day.
Messrs, H. T. Holladay, Jr., and Wn.
Jones attended the hunt at Orange Wednesday.

LEESBURG, VA.

Esten Cooke, the author, died recently at Taylorstown, this county,
Rev. J. A. Garrett has accepted the patorate of the First Baptist Church, Rev. Describes a Taylorstown of the First Baptist Church, and the results of the results are the Rev. J.'A. Garrett has acted the pastorate of the First Baptist Church, pastorate of the First Baptist Church, of New Providence, Tenn.

Hon. Henry Fairfax, of the State Corporation Commission, visited Lecsburg on Monday.

Hon. Harry St. George Tucker was the guest of Mr. Henry Harrison, He contemplates purchasing a summer home near here.

Miss Maria Tyler, of Baltimore, Md., Miss the guest of Judge and Mrs. R. H. is season. Az soon as they begin to teach they will return the money in easy payments and without interest. The league chose the following officers for the coming 'yeur: Miss Reynolds, president; Miss Kinger, vice-president; Miss Miss Salle Goggin, for all showed decided on Newton and the league are encouraging, for all showed decided of mercurs in all who love a worthy cause. The dues collected sheet to all who love a worthy cause. The dues collected sheet of interest to all who love a worthy cause. The dues collected sheet of interest to all who love a worthy cause. The dues collected sheet of interest to all who love a worthy cause. The dues collected sheet of interest to all who love a worthy cause. The dues collected sheet of interest to all who love a worthy cause. The dues collected sheet of interest to all who love a worthy cause. (Special to The Times Dispatch.)
WESTOVER, VA. April 1.—Mrs. Wm.
M. Ramsey and Miss Elizabeth Ramsey; of Westover, returned home to-day, after an extended trip to the North.
Mr. T. W. Whox, of Bol Air," has returned home from Richmond, where he went last Tuesday, much improved in health.
General satisfaction is expressed at candidacy of J. Taylor Ellyson, and he will undoubtedly carry the primary in this section.
Willard, Bwanson and Mann all have friends here and the fight will be close enough to be interesting, with Willard a fayorite.

toc.

Miss London spent The last weekend yacation at her home in Rounoke. Miss Coulling spent Priday and Saturday, March 24th and 25th, h. Richmond, on business. (Special to Tae Times-Dispatch.)

LEPSHURG, VA. April 1.—Lieutement C. M. Swapson and Mann all have bright will be closs choogh to be interesting, with Willard Proceedings of the less containing several of the class of the matriage of their daughter, Saller, to Mr. S. M. Chiles, of Winchester, Va., Philip P. Cocke, a relative of John meeting of the Virginia Normal League English and music.

(Special to Tae Times-Dispatch.)

Willard, Swapson and Mann all have brighted the class of the Miss Ethel Arvin, of the class of 1992, and Miss Ethel Arv

Hopkins Furniture Co.,

HOPKINS FURNITURE CO

SOME RARE OPPORTUNITIES.

3 Rooms Furnished. Complete.

New Furniture. CREDIT

Mattings, Go-Carts.

Cheapest Cash or Credit Store in the City.